

PMA Continues to Expand Local Government Investment Pool Services

On December 31, 2012, PMA Financial Network, Inc., PMA Securities, Inc. and Prudent Man Advisors, Inc. (collectively “PMA”)—leading provider of investment pool administration, fixed rate investment services and investment management to local government investment pools—finished the year as service provider with record participation in Local Government Investment Pools.

PMA provides services to nine Local Government Investment Pools (LGIPs) across seven states. LGIP balances and participants are rising. PMA serves in a variety of fund administration and advisory capacities for these six LGIPs:

- Florida Surplus Asset Fund Trust
- Illinois School District Liquid Asset Fund Plus
- Illinois Metropolitan Investment Fund
- Minnesota Municipal Money Market Fund
- MNTrust
- Wisconsin Investment Series Cooperative

Fixed rate investment services are provided to certain programs listed above as well as the following LGIPs:

- Iowa Schools Joint Investment Trust
- Oklahoma Liquid Asset Pool
- South Dakota Public Funds Investment Trust

PMA offers a wide range of services to LGIP participants in addition to fund administration and advisory services. Service programs include the Cash Flow Management Program designed to maximize portfolio earnings and local government resources. The Bond Proceeds Management Program assists local governments with optimal investment management of their bond proceeds. PMA’s competitive Bidding Program for fixed rate investments provides clients access to institutional coverage from many securities dealers and deposit rates from over 700 banks across the U.S.

“We are glad to be a major player in the LGIP space,” said James Davis, CEO. “We see a need from local governments and it is reflected in our growth.”
